

Rights of Victims Act

Citizen quick guide for essential protections

Core Rights

1. Right to safety and dignity in all reporting interactions.
2. Right to privacy and confidentiality of personal details.
3. Right to report without intimidation or retaliation.
4. Right to legal support and case progress updates.
5. Right to request protection measures when at risk.

Important Note

This document is an informational guide for CRIMSON users.
For official legal interpretation, consult licensed legal professionals.